

Walking in the Lake District

49 of us went to Bowness for a long weekend staying at the Burnside Hotel which looked after us well. Ken organised a brilliant weekend with walks to suit all tastes and energy levels. The weather was exceptionally kind to us and we had unexpected sunshine and mainly dry walking conditions. The scenery as always was stunning and the clarity of the weather enabled memorable views of the beauty of the Lake District. A lot of good fellowship was had by all and we agreed to return next year. (Diary note 6/7/8 May 2011). Ed.
